

Tom Janicik – Biography

Back in 1998, Tom Janicik struggled through the pain of divorce. During this difficult time, he started reading the Bible and developed inspired poetry to help facilitate the healing process. His life's passion is to continue to grow closer to God and to help others who are hurting through his writing. In addition, he has collaborated with musicians to develop songs which worship God and support the healing process. He serves as an active Stephen Minister at his local church.